"Of course, I invite men back all the time. As the bed is the only piece of furniture, it speeds up the seduction process! And the small you can do everything from it so you never have to get up. I can spend a whole weekend in bed - with the right fella, of course - and yes, I still love moaning and screaming. Now it's the neighbours who complain!" ♣

Porn Princess

Janette Littledove

Janette's an old friend of ours: she first appeared in Club back in 1988, when she was still living in her home town of Wolverhampton. In 1989 we told you how she'd moved to the USA to star in some pretty naughty x-pix, as well as winning the Miss Nude World contest by a mile. And now she's back as our Porn Princess!

While she's been on the movie circuit in California Janette's got quite a reputation for one particular trick: she can deep-throat a guy better than anyone else in the business! "When I first came to LA I started going out with this actor called Buck Adams," Janette tells us. "I was used to my old boyfriends' cocks, and I had got pretty good at sucking them all the way down my throat. But Buck had this huge one, and it took me two months to get it all the way down! Once I'd done that, though, you couldn't stop me, and the film directors soon realised I had a lot of talent for cocksucking. It's sort of become my trademark over here now!"

Janette shows off her trademark in movies like Hotel California, Miami Spice and Sexaholics. "I've put in a lot of practice, and now I reckon I can handle any size at all. Just watch my films and you can see me prove it!" ♣

Jessica likes talking dirty on the phone. No, she's not one of those 0898 bimbos, but a respectable receptionist with a problem.

"I can't help flirting whenever a dishy-sounding guy rings up," she says. "I ask them to describe themselves, and then if I like the sound of them I invite them out."

And then what?

"If I still fancy them, anything can happen! I've always believed in taking the lead. Wait for a guy to make the first move, and you could hang on for ever!" The 22-year-old from Sheffield is quite likely to grab a guy's hand and run it all over her body, inside her blouse and under her skirt.

"If they don't know I want them in bed after that, then they must be brain dead!" she maintains. "Too many people waste time pissing about - I want action!" ♣
